DETAILED ACTION

The preliminary amendment dated 6-7-01 is acknowledged.

Since the originally presented claims are 1-56 and not 1-58, the added claims 59-83 have been renumbered as 57-81 in accordance to rule 126. Claims included in the prosecution thus, are 21-32 and 57-81.

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321© may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 71-81 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-14 of U.S. Patent No. 5,891,468.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because instant generic 'polymers' the diblock polymers in the claims of said patent; instant specific ligands are deemed to be included in the generic ligand in the claims of said patent.

Art Unit: :1615

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 21-25, 60 and 71 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) or (b) as being anticipated by Torchilin (5,534,241).

Torchilin discloses a polymer system (DTPA-polylysine) one end of which is attached to a lipid and the other to either a therapeutic or diagnostic polychelator (targeting ligand); (note the abstract, figures, columns 4-5, 9-13 and claims).

Note: the 102 (b) rejection would be reconsidered upon the determination of the contents of the provisional application. Applicant's help in this regard is requested.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 21-32 and 57-81 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Torchilin cited above, further in view of Harris (5,932,462).

The teachings of Torchilin have been discussed above. Although Torchilin teaches the use of other targeting groups such as enzymes, lectins and antibodies in the liposomes compositions, Torchilin does not specifically teach that these ligands could be attached to the polymer instead of the polychelating ions.

Harris while disclosing a multi-armed polymer systems containing PEG-lysine polymers teaches that the polymer functional groups could be activated to couple to various target ligands (columns 12, 26, 36, 37 and claims).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use any targeting molecule in the polymer complex of Torchilin with the expectation of obtaining at least similar results since Harris teaches that any ligand could be coupled to the hydrophilic polymer system.
